

VIOLET HALL

Age 14
Lakeside Junior High School

Dedication is the perfect word to describe Violet, who manages to show equal dedication to her schooling, sports, music, and dance, while finding time for community involvement.

Violet is a leader and role model in school. She is always willing to help students, teachers, and staff, and strives to promote positivity while extending a helping hand to her classmates, knowing that middle school is a challenging time for many.

Violet is fierce yet feminine. Her fierceness was on full display as she helped lead the Lakeside Jr. High School softball team to two consecutive state placements. She also plays soccer and basketball while captaining the cheer squad for both football and basketball. Her softness and grace are showcased on the stage, where Violet not only plays cello and violin in the school orchestra, but is also a highly decorated ballerina, having received high scores at the Youth American Grand Prix National Ballet Competition in Chicago.

Violet is also active in Girl Scouts, having joined the organization when she was five years old. She also finds time to volunteer by spreading Christmas cheer through singing Christmas carols at nursing facilities, wrapping presents for the local AOE Club, and doing clean ups on Earth Day.
