

CHLOÉ ROSE DAVIDSON

Age 18
Geneva High School

Chloé cemented her reputation as a kind, caring, and inclusive leader with an entrepreneurial spirit when she was 12 years old. At a young age, Chloé understood the negative impact that in-school bullying had on students, and founded the social media movement, #IWILLSITWITHYOU, encouraging students to engage with someone they previously did not have a relationship with. These efforts led to national recognition, and Chloé being featured in numerous publications across North America.

As Chloé grew older, she understood the positive impact she could have on people, and entered the pageant scene, highlighted by a top 10 placing at the Miss Teen World Pageant in Las Vegas in 2019. Success in the pageant circuit led her to start Chloé Rose Pageant Consulting.

Chloé has over 500 volunteer hours, helping various organizations across Ashtabula County, earning her the Presidential Service Award and an achievement award from the Ohio State Senate.

Chloé does all this while being a high school cheerleader, thespian, and member of the Geneva Image Show Choir.
