

TRINITY STARR LYNN OVERTON Age 18 Jefferson Area High School

Trinity exudes creativity and has shared that passion with several communities throughout Ashtabula County. Trinity has designed and painted storefront windows for local businesses, offered face painting services at many community and private events, designed coloring pages for the Gazette Newspaper's coloring contests, and has been commissioned for custom paintings and murals. These experiences have led Trinity to launch, Starr Artistry, a graphic design and creative services company, in 2023, at 17 years old.

Trinity is actively involved in many local organizations, especially the Jefferson, Pymatuning Valley, and Grand Valley Chambers of Commerce. They help organize special events, set up and tear down the events, and when acting as a vendor, donate a portion of their profits back to the organizations. Trinity has logged over 150 community service and volunteer hours and already has committed over 50 hours for events in 2024.

Trinity, in addition to being a high school student, community volunteer, and entrepreneur, also supports their family by offering full-time childcare services to a 2-year-old and a 3-month-old. Trinity tutors their 11-year-old sister as well. Trinity carries a very full plate, yet still maintains a cumulative 3.8 GPA.
