Jenna Poyer

Grand Valley Local School- Age 13

Jenna is a supportive and caring individual, who is quick to provide support and care to those in need. She has been part of many fundraising activities for charitable organizations, and easily steps into a leadership role in those groups.

Jenna is a member of the Junior National Honor Society at Grand Valley, as well as a member of the student council. As a member of student council, Jenna organized and fundraised with another student for the Angel Tree, which is an event that fundraises money for less fortunate students in the district for gifts during the holiday season. This year the event helped eight families in the district provide a great Christmas for their children. She also participated in the Polar Plunge, and assisted with the Emily Plinket Golf Outing Fundraiser.

Jenna is an active member of the volleyball and basketball teams, and is known for her hard-work ethic and positive attitude. As a student, Jenna is diligent and can always be counted on by her classmates and teachers. She is valued by her peers for her kindness and acceptance that she shows everyone.
