

BRADY TISCH

Age 17
Pymatuning Valley High School

Brady is a very musically gifted young man, with a passion for performance and a very bright future ahead.

Brady plays multiple instruments and has been a four-year section leader in concert band, marching band, and jazz band. He is a member of the Youngstown State University Youth Orchestra, which is comprised of the top young musicians in the region. He has also participated in many music ensembles and honors bands at various universities, including The Ohio State University. Through his participation in the high school bands, he has marched in many parades and activities in his community. He even directed the jazz band for a special performance for a teacher while the band director was unavailable.

Brady takes advanced classes in school, is a member of National Honor Society, a senior officer in Student Council, and a member of the Senior Class Cabinet. He is also a three-sport athlete, playing baseball, basketball, and soccer where he finished 17th in the state for having 598 saves as a goalie during his high school career.

Brady is a lifeguard during the summer at a local campground, and also is active in his church, St. Joseph Calasanctius in Jefferson. His high level of achievement and well-roundedness has earned him acceptance into Clemson University in the fall.
