Mason is a true competitor and a model leader, as well as teammate. Mason is valued by his peers for his dependability and willingness to adapt to a variety of situations amongst diverse individuals. Mason is a “big brother” in his Senior Leadership mentoring club, which cultivates personal growth, encourages and inspires group development, and increases leadership without the school and community. His outstanding service, leadership, and character earned Mason an induction into the Jefferson Area High School National Honor Society during his junior year, and he was quickly elected NHS President.

Mason is a four-year letterman of the Falcon football, wrestling, and track teams; serving as the captain of the football team and helped take the team to the highest playoff level in Jefferson school history, winning all four rounds of the Division IV Regional playoffs and participating in the Division IV state semi-finals. Mason qualified for districts as a wrestler his sophomore and junior years, and this year Mason finished 4th place at the wrestling districts (D2) tournament, earning a qualification for the state tournament in Columbus.

Mason’s hard work ethic is demonstrated on the field, the mat, and also in the classroom. He has a 4.0 GPA, and is a role model to younger students. Mason volunteers with the annual Toys for Tots campaign held at Our Lady of Peace Parish in Ashtabula. This fall, Mason will be heading to Capital University to continue his football career.
