

JORDEN JONES
AGE 16/JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL

Jorden is a motivated and ambitious individual who consistently thinks outside the box and seeks innovative solutions. His creative and entrepreneurial spirit was recently on display when he invested his own money in a buy-and-resell venture, yielding a profit of over $500 in a single week. He has also taken the initiative to invest in the stock market, showcasing his financial acumen and willingness to learn. He wants to deepen his knowledge of trading, learn how to code, and he hopes to obtain an advanced degree and become a doctor.

A dedicated and faithful servant, Jorden is actively involved in his youth group and has participated in multiple mission trips. He maintains a strong academic focus, earning an academic letter his freshman year with a 3.9 GPA, and became a published author in 8th grade. He also volunteers his time working in the concessions stand, has volunteered at the Remote Area Medical Clinic, and participates in track and field.
