eighteen under 18 Amari Bowers

Ashtabula County Technical & Career Campus- Age 18

Amari is a self-driven and hard-working individual, who stays busy balancing academics, sports, and running his own small business. Amari is a talented wrestler for Conneaut High School, and has won over 100 matches, despite setbacks with injuries and a season cut short due to Covid shutdowns in 2020. He was named as an Honor Roll Wrestler in 2020. Amari is confident, determined, and has a drive to be successful on the mat- which is inspiring to his teammates.

Amari is highly-motivated academically, and maintains an excellent GPA at school. His teachers describe him as having an “outstanding moral character” and he is a leader in the classroom; is kind to both students and staff, and always ready with a helping hand when needed.

Amari runs a successful landscaping business in Conneaut, and is known for his dependability and excellent work ethic. His attention to detail, inner-drive, and remarkable time-management make him a standout student and athlete.
