Maggie McGovern

Grand Valley High School- Age 18

Maggie is a bright student and personable leader. She is attentive in her classes, and quick to ask or answer questions. She relates to others easily, volunteers her time to help others without hesitation. She was an integral contributor to the Grand Valley High School fruit sale drive; selling fruit, helping other volunteers sort orders, and keep track of funds. She also volunteers at the annual blood drive, pancake breakfast, and Angel Tree- an event that fund raises money for less fortunate students and families in the district, providing gifts during the holiday season.

Maggie participates in FFA, drama club, and is a member of the National Honor Society. She is also a member of the volleyball, track, and softball teams. Maggie leads in the classroom amongst her peers with her strong work-ethic, mature communication style, and advanced soft skills. She's also a leader in the high school student body, and has been an essential contributor to raising and improving school spirit at pep rallies and sporting events.

Maggie spearheaded an attempt to create a men's volleyball team, and was candid in discussions about the change in graduation caps and gowns. Maggie's confidence while navigating challenging situations is unwavering, and she is highly valued by her community at Grand Valley.
